The Stoner Car Care Difference

Paul Stoner, founder, 1942

Family Heritage

Stoner is a third-generation, family owned business that formulates and manufactures professional and consumer car care products in the USA.

Our founder, Paul Stoner, earned a degree in chemistry and in 1942 he formed Stoner Inc. He used his expertise to help industrial customers solve their most difficult problems, including creating a product to release tires from molds. Eventually Paul's attention turned to car care.

Manufacturing

Stoner is a manufacturing company, unlike many of our competitors who are just marketers. Nearly every product we sell, we make in house—we even fill our own aerosols, trigger bottles, and wipes canisters.

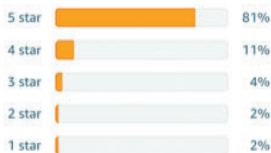

Quality and Performance

We've known from the beginning that making the highest quality products is the only way to succeed. Innovation is in our blood, starting with Paul Stoner and continuing through to our leadership today. We're committed to changing the game by making the finest products possible, earning more 5-star ratings than our competitors.
